V. The details of duties and obligations of the multi-system operator or its linked local cable operator and rights and duties of the subscriber as specified in these regulations.

The obligations of DEN Networks Limited (DEN) and its associated Linked Cable Operators (LCOs) are given below:

1. DEN should act immediately on the applications received by it for seeking connection, disconnection and reconnection or shifting of Cable Tv connection or intending to obtain or return STB at a place located within the area of operation of DEN or its LCOs immediately but not later than 2 (two) days of the receipt of the application. However, if any shortcoming or deficiency in the application is observed, the same will be communicated in writing to the applicant within 2 days of receipt of the application.
2. In case it is technically or operationally non-feasible to provide connection, reconnection, shifting of service or supply of set top box at the location where the services are requested by the applicant, DEN or its LCOs will inform the applicant within 2 (two) days of receipt of application indicating the reasons.
3. DEN or its LCOs should give a prior notice of 15 (fifteen) days to the consumers if it takes off the air or discontinue exhibition of any channel on its network. However, no notice is required if the discontinuation happens because of any natural calamities or reasons beyond the control of DEN.
4. DEN or its LCOs will redress the complaints of consumers within the time limits as defined under the relevant regulations issued by the Authority of India in this regard.
5. A consumer may approach the Nodal officer appointed by DEN in case the consumer is unsatisfied with the resolution provided by the compliant center. The Nodal officer will redress the complaints within 10 (ten) days from the date of receipt of complaint.
6. DEN should offer Cable TV services on both pre-paid and post-paid payment options to the consumers and will be responsible for generation of bills for the consumers.
7. DEN either directly or through LCOs should give bills to consumers for charges due and payable by consumers on monthly basis in the manner as defined in the relevant regulations.
8. DEN should provide itemized details to the pre-paid consumers on receipt of request at a reasonable cost for any period pertaining to last 6 months from the month in which request is made.
9. DEN should change the payment plan from pre-paid to post-paid or vice-versa on receipt of request from consumers within 30 days at no extra charge. However, in case of post-paid bills, the consumers shall clear the outstanding amount/ dues, if any before placing any request for conversion from post-paid into pre-paid model.

10. DEN should establish a website which should contain the information pertaining to services offered by DEN and details of complaint center, Nodal Officers, Consumer Charter etc.

The subscribers/ consumers are entitled to the following rights as specified under the relevant regulations issued by Telecom Regulatory Authority of India and other rights as may be available to them:

1. The Consumers are entitled to subscribe to the Basic Service Tier (a package composed of minimum 100 Free-To-Air channels) and/ or any other package/ bouquet as may be offered by DEN from time to time. Further, the Consumers can subscribe the channels from DEN on a-la-carte basis.
2. Consumers who have submitted complete applications to DEN or its LCOs are entitled to receive the cable services from DEN provided there is not any technical, operational limitation and the consumers satisfy and adhere to the terms & conditions, requirements etc laid down by DEN and its LCOs for providing cable services.
